

THE BANKRUPTCY COURT LIAISON COMMITTEE

IS LOOKING FOR NEW MEMBERS

The Bankruptcy Court Liaison Committee is looking for practicing attorneys who are interested in serving on the Committee. There will be three positions open to non-judiciary attorneys for the Committee's next term, which commences in June 2006. The Bankruptcy Court Liaison Committee was formed to promote communication about court procedures, etiquette, filings and other issues; to assist the Court and attorneys in creating a more efficient environment; and to represent a diverse group of bankruptcy attorneys from the Chicago metropolitan area. Additionally, the Committee develops and sponsors educational programs concerning issues affecting the bench, attorneys, financial institutions and consumers, including providing support for the local CARE Program and state law school participation in the ABI's national moot court competition. The Committee also creates social opportunities to allow greater interaction between the Court and those who appear before it.

If you are interested, please send a short letter to either Brian Shaw or Bennett Kahn no later than May 21, 2006, per the contact information below:
